Being a Sheep

Hebrews 13:15-21

Sheep are generally docile animals. They can behave foolishly, often wandering away from safety without the least thought or concern about the danger that it may bring them. This may explain why Jesus referred to His Followers as sheep. We can demonstrate the same oblivious nature as we wander through life. That's why we need shepherds, and why we should thank God for them.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Disciple(s) –
Shepherd –
Leader(ship) –

2. What are some of the dangers and threats to the church?

3. What is to be our attitude toward those in spiritual authority?

4. Help #1: _____ as a _____

5. What should be true of a disciple of Christ after a number of years?

6. Help #2: _____ their _____

7. What do we need in a numb and busy world?

8. Help #3: _____ your _____

9. What does a commitment to Christ also mean?

10. Help #4: _____ to them not about them

11. What are some ways you know that the shepherds love you?

12. Help #5: _____ them

13. What did Paul tell the Thessalonian church to do with those “who are over you”?

14. Help #6: _____ for them

15. What do shepherds carry that is often very heavy?

16. What do we want our shepherds to hear from God when they must stand to give an account for their service as a shepherd?
