

Disciple ...

Luke 9:57-52

Are you a disciple of Jesus or simply a Christian? You may wonder: What's the difference? Biblically, there may be very little, but practically speaking, the term "Christian" has been used so loosely and broadly that it's almost lost its meaning. We want to be disciples.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:
Disciple(s) –
Christian –
Jesus –

2. What is our new vision statement?
3. What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus Christ?
4. Lesson #1: A disciple _____
5. What problem frustrated Paul and several other New Testament writers?
6. What is the key to lesson #1?
7. Lesson #2: A disciple _____ his/her _____
8. What is impressive about Elisha?
9. Lesson #3: A disciple _____ to the _____ of _____
10. Despite being ordinary and thick-headed, what made the first disciples so successful?
11. What did Bonhoeffer say was the response of a disciple?
12. Lesson #4: A disciple _____ like _____
13. Lesson #5: A disciple doesn't simply _____, he/she _____
14. What can make tests a joy?
15. In Acts 4:13, what made Peter and John stand out?
16. Based on John 6, how do you know that Jesus is interested in commitments not crowds?
