Make Disciples ...

Matthew 28:16-20

As a disciple of Christ, you have an assignment: Make Disciples. And it's not as easy as it may sound. As a parent, I found myself at times cleaning up after my children because it was easier than teaching them to clean up after themselves. But that maturity is our assignment as parents and disciples.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:
Disciple(s) –
Jesus –
Learn(s) –

2. What does discipleship lead to?
3. What is our vision statement (memorize it)?
4. Step #1: You must be _____
5. If they want to grow, what must disciples understand?
6. Step #2: _____ an _____
7. What might help us be more inviting to unbelievers?
8. Step #3: _____
9. In what ways does discipleship mirror a parent/child relationship?
10. Step #4: _____
11. What does "doing life together" mean as part of discipleship?
12. Step #5: _____
13. In what ways is discipleship like a relay?
14. What did Jesus say were three qualities that identified His followers?
15. What should be our attitude even when discipleship seems idealistic and aspirational?
