

Sunday AM Sermon – January 2, 2022

2022 Punctuated

1 Thessalonians 5:12-28

The apostle Paul was a gifted writer. He could write prose and poetry. But he also loved to share bullet points – short, powerful commands for the church to obey. As we look at the New Year, maybe there are some bullet points we can obey that will glorify God and bless others.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Pandemic –
Disciple(s) –
Bless –

2. How has the pandemic affected people?
3. Lesson one: _____ God's _____ and _____
4. What do you need to do if you've drifted away from God?
5. Lesson two: _____ _____ for what Jesus has done
6. Lesson three: _____ and _____
7. What was the purpose of the Sabbath?
8. What permission and command do you have?
9. Lesson four: _____ the _____ of what people do
10. What are some situations where we can make life lighter for others?
11. Lesson five: _____ _____
12. What are some acts of grace you can demonstrate in 2022?
13. Lesson six: _____ people to _____
14. What are some unique ways we can glorify God in 2022?
15. We can't always control what happens to us, but what can we determine?

Spend time with family or friends (maybe over a meal or during a family devotional) discussing the following related to the sermon

Faith Talk: Which of the six points is most significant to you, and why?

Faith Walk: Be a thermostat in 2022, where you warm and enlighten everywhere you go.

If you are here and have been touched or convicted by something said or done today we would love to study the Bible with you and introduce you more fully to our Savior, Jesus Christ. Just call the church office at 795-4377 and we will set something up. God bless you!
