

Sunday AM Sermon – May 22, 2022

Playing by Different Rules

Colossians 2:20-23

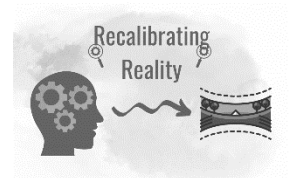

I never liked playing at the house of a particular friend growing up. Because they would change the rules to fit them so they would win: You're out of bounds, my ball; You can't buy Boardwalk, only I can. If I protested, he would say that it's his house, so he gets to make the rules.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:
World –
Rules –
Kingdom –

2. What are some ways that our thinking changes when we become disciples of Jesus?
3. What are two forms of empty philosophies?
4. What do Jesus' Kingdom "rules" accomplish?
5. Rule #1: _____ your _____
6. What are the implications of being bought at the high price of Jesus' blood?
7. What is worldview?
8. What are some things Scripture says about our hearts?
9. Rule #2: _____ and _____
10. In the Sermon on the Mount, what did Jesus say about the religious confusion of His day?
11. Why is truth so important?
12. Rule #3: _____ a _____
13. Where do we go to learn the essence of real love?
14. What are some of the ways we can daily love like Jesus loves?
15. What are the consequences of getting aligned (or not aligned) with God's standards?

Spend time with family or friends (maybe over a meal or during a family devotional) discussing the following related to the sermon

Faith Talk: What do you think about the three "rules" presented this morning?

Faith Walk: Recalibrate your thinking and your living according to the teachings of Jesus Christ.

If you are here and have been touched or convicted by something said or done today we would love to study the Bible with you and introduce you more fully to our Savior, Jesus Christ. Just call the church office at 795-4377 and we will set something up. God bless you!
