

Sunday AM Sermon – July 3, 2022

The Final Separation

Luke 13:22-30

We often seem surprised when people die, especially icons of entertainment or sports – as if they will escape the inevitability. Similarly, people will be surprised when Jesus comes again. Not because God hasn't warned us, but because humans often choose to live in denial.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Coming – Kingdom –
Glory –

2. Jesus' second coming is mentioned how much more often than His first coming?
3. Lesson one: The Lord wants us to be _____ about His Second Coming
4. Why does the Lord not tell us when He is returning?
5. What are some of the things that will happen when the Lord returns?
6. Lesson two: When He comes again, we will be _____
7. What are some things that were true of Jesus' resurrected body?
8. Lesson three: When He comes again, we will be _____
9. Who will be separated when Jesus comes again?
10. What will the great separation be based on?
11. In what way do we determine the Kingdom we want to be part of?
12. Lesson four: Those who belong to the Lord will be _____
13. What are some of the things we will only fully appreciate when Jesus returns?
14. Why are some people not seeking the Great Physician and Savior?
15. In light of Jesus coming again, what is the question we should be asking?
