

Sunday AM Sermon – August 28, 2022

How Do You Build a Legacy?

Ecclesiastes 2:17-26

Whether it's the sports arena, political arena, entertainment arena, financial arena, or familial arena, people today talk a lot about legacy. As people near the end of their careers, others speculate and postulate about the legacy they are leaving. What does the Teacher say about this?

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Legacy –

Work –

Gift(s) –

2. Who still speaks through his example of faith, though he is dead?
3. Why did Solomon grow to hate life?
4. What can help us enjoy life?
5. Lesson one: We do not build a legacy from _____
6. The first shortcoming of work is that: You must _____ to others (18)
7. What does the wasting of his father's fortune tell us about the prodigal (Luke 15)?
8. The second shortcoming of work is that: You must _____ to _____ (19)
9. What happened to what Solomon left behind?
10. The third shortcoming of work is that: Your work is full of _____ and _____ (22-23)
11. What are some of the "spinning plates" that Solomon and other humans try to keep going?
12. Lesson two: By _____ in, _____, and being _____ for _____ (24-25)
13. What was missing in Solomon's life when he was in his self-indulgent pursuit of pleasure?
14. Where does happiness come from?
15. What are some regrets you'll never have?
16. What stole Solomon's joy?

Faith Talk, Faith Walk

Spend time with family or friends (maybe over a meal or during a family devotional) discussing the following related to the sermon

Faith Talk: What legacy do you want to leave and why?

Faith Walk: Make seeking God your life pursuit and your legacy will take care of itself.

If you are here and have been touched or convicted by something said or done today we would love to study the Bible with you and introduce you more fully to our Savior, Jesus Christ. Just call the church office at 795-4377 and we will set something up. God bless you!
