

Sunday AM Sermon – October 16, 2022

What Do I Learn at a Funeral?

Ecclesiastes 7:1-6

I've attended hundreds of funerals. It's a way to honor the deceased. But it is also a way to be reminded of reality. That my life is going somewhere. That my choices have consequences. That the end will largely be determined by what happens before then.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Funeral(s) –

Death –

Reality –

2. What's the mission of the Make-A-Wish Foundation?

3. What evil under the sun does the Teacher unmask in this section of Ecclesiastes?

4. Lesson one: _____ so you can face the _____ of _____

5. What should the living take to heart?

6. What is the reasoning behind taking children to funerals?

7. Lesson two: _____ so you can be _____ by it

8. What is the blessing of sadness?

9. When is crying most cathartic?

10. Why is it foolish to avoid death and funerals?

11. What are some of the lessons that death preaches to us?

12. Lesson three: _____ so your _____ reads better than your _____

13. What is our gift to God?

14. Once he died, what did the rich man in Luke 16 want to do?

15. As we face the reality of our own deaths, what questions become important?

Spend time with family or friends (maybe over a meal or during a family devotional) discussing the following related to the sermon

Faith Talk: Talk together about why you go to funerals and how you feel about going to funerals.

Faith Walk: Have some serious conversations about death and funeral plans so you can live well now.

If you are here and have been touched or convicted by something said or done today we would love to study the Bible with you and introduce you more fully to our Savior, Jesus Christ. Just call the church office at 795-4377 and we will set something up. God bless you!
