Advertising executive Frederick Barnard is credited with saying that a picture is worth a thousand words. Maybe that’s why Jesus used word pictures so often to convey deep spiritual mysteries. Today, we look at two more Scriptural word pictures used to describe baptism.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Baptism or baptized –

Gospel –

Gift –

2. Why is water play not the same as baptism?

3. When and why did baptism begin to be marginalized as a response of saving faith?

4. Metaphor #3: _____ the _____

5. In what way does symbolize and express the reality of the gospel?

6. To be saving faith, what must our faith be in?

7. In what way is baptism a dividing point?

8. What is for forgiveness of sins?

9. Metaphor #4: _____

10. In what sense is Jesus completely responsible for our salvation?

11. What was Jesus referring to when He talked about being born again of water and the Spirit?

12. Gift: We receive _____ of _____ and the _____

13. Gift: We have our _____

14. Gift: We are _____ to the community of the _____

15. Gift: We are _____ and _____

16. Judgment is God’s jurisdiction. What is our role in God’s plan of salvation?
